

Stop Wasting Time And Money On Useless Job Searches – Land Your Dream Job In As Little As 8 Weeks By Using Our Secret Job Success System Which Will Have Employers Ready To Hire You, Even If You Think You Blew The Interview!

Let's be honest. Searching for your dream job can be a long, drawn out and many times a fruitless exercise right? You spend hours a day trawling through the job centre ads and the Internet and then spend even longer filling out the lengthy application forms.

But that's not the end of it. Then you have to ensure that your resume is pristine and your cover letter is written impeccably. You send your application off and then...you wait until you are asked to come for an interview.

When you get the interview, you spend days stressing over it, trying to read up as much as you can about the company you are applying for. The nerves are killing you and you think you have done enough until the big day arrives...

...you go into the interview confident you have covered all bases. Everything seems ok to begin with. Heck, you even start to relax...

And then it hits you. That unexpected question that stumps you and your mind draws a blank. Your palms start sweating and your heart starts beating so hard you think it's going to explode inside your chest.

Something happens to your head and then just when you think you are about to have a panic attack and go into complete meltdown...you blurt out the first thing that pops in your head!

You can't believe you just said what you did and instantly, weeks of preparation have just gone down the toilet!

You leave with a sense of hopelessness and regret. Why hadn't you thought of that question? Why couldn't you answer it properly?

Needless to say, you get a big fat rejection the next day. You can almost hear the drum rolling when you open the envelope and it tells you the inevitable...

...and then what happens?

You repeat the whole process making the same old mistakes and wasting precious time and money travelling to and from multiple interviews...but still no luck (and you have no idea what it is that you are doing wrong!)

Worse still, for every job you apply, there are 20 or more candidates for the same job...and you always end up losing out to someone else...for some reason, you're just not good enough.

Sound familiar?

This is the reality that most job seekers out of university or those looking for office jobs face...endless interviews and an endless stream of rejections!

But, it's not your fault that this is happening! No!

Think about it like this...

Unemployment Is At an All Time High...

It's true! The recent recession has meant that jobs are few and far between and for each job there are more than 20 candidates!

Last year in the UK alone, over 300,000 people graduated – that's a lot of graduates, and that's a lot of people looking for work. Think about your area of expertise.

Let's just say you are in the IT sector...

...The likelihood is that you are competing against every other IT graduate not only in your city, but from the surrounding Cities also...that's a lot of people scouting for the same jobs as you!

So what can be done about the situation at hand? How are you going to set yourself apart from the others? How are you going to stand out from the crowd?

If like thousands of other job hunters out there, you are struggling to find the right job, then you need to read on because I have some great news which will help ease your worries and help you not only focus your energy on your dream job – but land it too!

Because, as I am about to reveal, you have no need to fear stronger candidates than yourself who you think are more than likely to snatch your dream job from under your nose...

Even if your diary is packed with interviews, it's no guarantee that you will get a job. And assessment centres? Forget them! But, as you will see in a few moments, there are some little known tricks which can virtually turn an interview into a firm job offer with just a little preparation on your part!

The endless trips to the job centre, the careers fairs and the interviews themselves can be costly, and when you do it repeatedly...it all adds up. At a time when you have no money or very little of it, you seem to be spending it all on travelling to and from interviews...a sorry situation which can easily be changed with a little secret know-how.

You see, repeating these activities day in, day out is demoralising when you keep getting rejections – but, it does NOT have to be this way!

The sad fact is, most people will land jobs they have to do, rather than want to do because money is a necessity and so is paying off your debts and your mortgage.

How many people do you know sticking it out in jobs they hate because that's all they have and that's all they can get? But, as I am about to show you, this doesn't have to be the case.

Not only can you land a good job, but with a little preparation, you can easily land your dream job!

You don't have to be one of those millions of people stuck in a dead-end job looking for a way out, nor do you need to turn up at the office each day dreading the day ahead and wondering how on earth you are going to get through the day!

Maybe you are stuck in a low paying job and an internal position comes up and you decide you are going to go for it...only for a dozen or so of your colleagues to also go for it...

And the inevitable happens...you lose out to one of your mates.

But, as you will see in a moment, your situation really doesn't have to be this way...because the first thing you need to do is identify...

...The Real Reason Why Your Situation Has Not Changed...

You're worried you are going to be stuck on this never-ending treadmill of either no job or a boring job...and you are doing nothing about it because you:

- Lack the confidence to try new things and new ways of landing your job
- Are not aware that there are hidden jobs waiting to be discovered which are never advertised
- Are too demoralised by the endless rejections you keep getting
- Are unable to explain gaps in your resume
- Get stumped by particular questions during an interview
- Have a resume which is not performing well and selling you in the best possible light
- Are struggling with your cover letters to tailor them to each specific job
- Are finding the application forms intimidating and a chore to fill out
- Lose it during the interview because of nerves or because your mind goes blank
- Feel as if you know everything there is to know about job hunting and interviews (prepare to be astonished, because you are about to learn techniques that very few people know even exist)
- Are losing out to better candidates than you each time
- Are stuck in a dead end job because it's all you can get
- Aspire to do well in your chosen career but find the opportunities for improving are scarce
- Want a better salary but have no idea how to bring up the subject of salaries, or even negotiate a salary

If any of these apply to you, then you need to listen carefully to what I am about to tell you – because what I am about to reveal to you is going to blow you away...

Did You Know That 50% Of Jobs Are NEVER Advertised Through Traditional Media?

What if I told you that competition for these hidden jobs was very little and that you would have a good chance of not only landing an interview, but nailing the job as well?

Wouldn't you like to bound out of bed in the morning knowing you are about to spend the day doing the job you love and are earning more than enough money to take care of all your personal and family needs?

How would you like to learn secret guerrilla tactics that could have employers literally crying out for you so that you would be spoilt for choice and would have not one, but several jobs to choose from?

What if you could command the type of salary that you thought would never be possible – what would that do for your life? A new car? A new home? A better life for your family?

What if you could laser-target your job search efforts so you only apply for jobs you want and not because you feel you have to? Think how much time and money that would save over the long run!

What if I told you that there was a way of pepping up your existing resume to make it even better and totally irresistible to employers so that they would be calling you in droves asking you to come for an interview?

What if you didn't have to spend a fortune on travelling to hundreds of interviews only to be rejected again?

What if you knew how to scout out the best jobs and land an interview for them?

How would you feel if you blew an interview and knew that all was not lost and that you could actually salvage your situation and land yourself the job in the process? What would that do for you?

Give you more confidence?

Allow you to work hard knowing it's a job you want rather than need?

Give you a better life and a better salary to boot?

How much would this information be worth to YOU? Knowing you can stand out from the crowd and influence your employers so that they see you in a positive light, even if you think you have interviewed badly so that you can still land the job of your dreams!

It All Started Like This...

Let me introduce myself. My name is Agustin Valecillos and for the last 5 years I have helped hundred of graduates and business people just like you to not only find and prepare for their dream job, but land it with ease too.

As a career coach, it's my job to ensure that candidates have every weapon at their disposal to help them nail their interviews and turn them into jobs in as little time as possible. I know firsthand what it is like to struggle looking for jobs when there are so few about and then get an interview and land job offers you want rather than need.

You see, I wanted to be an investment banker and knew that these jobs were rarer than diamonds. I needed to make sure that when an opportunity came about, that I was more than prepared.

I spent weeks researching and learning everything there was to learn about this highly-paid industry. I spent hours perfecting my interview techniques and learning every trick in the book to enable me to nail my interviews each and every time.

The result? The last time I was looking for a job, I landed 8 interviews, of which 7 offered me a job!

I became so successful at what I did that years later when I was approached by a career coach who wanted me to coach others on landing the perfect job for them, I immediately said yes!

The feedback I got from candidates was amazing. Even though I was helping people get into investment banking, the advice and help I provided was applicable to any office job out there – advice that was so trusted and valued that people would come back to me long after landing their perfect job so I could continue to coach them in their ongoing careers!

Now, I charge $200 for an hour of my time for people to consult with me, and guess what? My diary is bursting with appointments for candidates, some of who have to wait weeks to get a consultation with me, just so that they can have an hour of my expertise!

When people started requesting a more affordable and immediate version of my services, I decided to put together my 5 years of career coaching experience into a system which would help people just like you to land your ideal job without having to take time out to come and see me or paying so much in consulting fees.

People who have benefited from my expertise have come back to me repeatedly throughout their careers and have used my services to help them progress to the next level. I am even more in demand today because of the current job climate and recession than I have ever been in my life.

My students have an excellent success rate – in fact, I have an amazing 98% success rate and have helped over 284 first-time failures land lucrative jobs in the financial industry – an industry which is well-known for being difficult and ruthless to get into. The interviews for these types of jobs are some of the hardest interviews a person will ever have to go through.

Put it this way, I see resumes day in and day out in my job. I not only coach people like you, but also help in the hiring process – I regularly interview candidates for highly paid investment banker jobs and know what it takes to make it and succeed in this area.

If my candidates can excel in this field, any other fields would be easy to apply for. Don't think that you can only be helped if you are looking for financial based jobs. I can help anyone who is looking for an office based job and is:

- A graduate fresh out of University
- Someone who is applying for a first time job
- Someone who wants to leave their current job and apply elsewhere
- Someone who wants to apply for an internal job
- Someone who doesn't have the skills or confidence to attempt an interview
- Someone going for their dream job who doesn't want to mess it up
- Someone who has not done an interview for a while

Yes, You Too Can Land Your Perfect Job!

You can quickly and easily land the job of your dreams by working smarter rather than harder!

Put it this way, you could buy a traditional book on interviews, and although the information will be general, it won't tell you the secrets of the real pros. And in any case, you would need to buy separate books for how to create your resume and cover letter, as well as how to complete an application form.

None of the traditional books I have seen in bookshops will teach you how to recover after a bad interview. As my students tell me, the advice they are given by the books is to simply forget about it and concentrate on the next interview. Oh, and did I mention just how much time and money you would be spending to find out the kind of information already available at the local job centre?

You could surf the Internet and use the free information available here. But, there is a huge drawback to this. You could spend days trawling through the information but will still not learn how you can come back after a bad interview and land the job. Moreover, you will not learn how to really stand out and separate yourself from the other candidates.

You could use your local job centre, but the truth is, 50% of the BEST jobs out there are never advertised and a job centre will never teach you where to look. They too dish out the same old advice of how to tackle interviews without teaching you how to really get the attention of your future employer.

You could spend days at your local careers office and again, you will find the same problems as that of a job centre. Do you really just want to be like everyone else?

Or how about visiting a careers fair and meeting potential employers first hand? But, unless you know about each and every company in-depth, you will be just like the other thousands of graduates who also attend these places. You may as well just blend in and keep quiet!

You could visit a top career coach for help and advice. But, like all top career coaches, you will have to wait weeks before securing an appointment and their consulting fees are expensive - maybe even out of your budget.

You could just carry on attending hundreds of interviews. The trouble is, if you do what you have always done, you will get what you have always gotten – a rejection. Do you really want to waste hours of your time and money pursuing just another job which is going to get you yet another rejection?

Wouldn't it be easier if there was a way to cut hours from your job hunting and just focus on the job you want instead? How would you like to start using new tactics to not only narrow your job search, but also open doors to opportunities which you never even knew existed?

For the price of a night out, you can learn the secret tactics used only by the top performing candidates anywhere. We are talking tactics which have landed ordinary candidates extra-ordinary jobs and six-figure salaries!

Forget using traditional media to land yourself a job. A dream job requires you to pitch yourself not only in the best possible way, but also in a way which makes you shine out like the moon on a dark night, ensuring all the other 'stars' fade into the background!

And you want to ensure you have covered all bases from the start of your application right through to responding to your employer AFTER you have finished your interview.

Think of how much you could save over the course of a year! And that's not all. The techniques you will learn will help you to not only transform your life by helping you nail your interview and make the right impression, but you will save time and money by avoiding repeated interviews which simply lead to rejection.

You will have all the tools and the knowledge you need to make not just an impression, but to completely obliterate the thoughts of other candidates firmly from the minds of your potential employers!

Now some would call that an unfair advantage!

The Job Hunters Handbook

Time Management for College Students

Surprise Ebook

Together, these 6 ebooks will literally rip your competition apart! At only $97, you can start learning the secret tips from the best in the industry to land your dream job effortlessly. It's so much easier than taking repeated trips to the job centre, careers fair and careers office only to spend hours of your precious time searching for jobs which everyone else is applying for.

Think about it like this, $97 is a drop in the ocean compared to what career consultants like myself charge – over $200 an hour – OUCH! And the material in this Handbook has stood the test of time – it will still be there when you decide to go for a promotion or move onto pastures new!

It's like having your very own career coach by your side and advising you every step of the way – certainly a wise investment for any serious job hunter!

And it's certainly smarter than trawling the Internet for hours – who wants to be doing that when they could be preparing for an interview instead? And as for other books – forget it. You're not even going to learn a fraction of what you can learn with The Ultimate Job Hunter's Handbook.

Try the system out for a full 8 weeks...and if you don't land your ideal job in 8 weeks, I'll give you your money back. That's right!

8 Week 'Find a Job' Guarantee

I am so confident you will get hired in as little time as possible that I am going to give you 8 weeks in which to try this system out. Use it for a full 8 weeks and if you don't get hired, I'll give you your money back – no questions asked! Now who else can guarantee you results in such short a time?

I don't make empty promises, as a top career coach who has worked with the cream of the crop and helped over 284 first time candidates succeed, I can assure you that you can use this system and confidently:

- Avoid repeated rejections
- Stand out from the other candidates
- Have a better salary and a brighter future
- Secure a job even if you think you have blown the interview
- Learn secret tactics to secure a job and get a higher salary
- Learn how to create the perfect RESUME, application form and cover letter
- Find the best jobs which are never even advertised
- Market yourself so that employers find you irresistible
- Hone in on the jobs you want and land the job you love

Or, you could just simply ignore this system and carry on doing what you were doing to get the same old results. Let's face it, who wants to stay unemployed longer and not have money to splash out on life's little luxuries?

Who wants to waste time and money on countless interviews and lengthy job searches only to keep getting rejected and never understand why?

Why even risk wasting your time and end up working on a job you hate because you really have no choice? Imagine having to spend day in and day out going through the misery of turning up for work where the job is boring and the boss drives you nuts?

Why bother surviving paycheck to paycheck and lose out to other colleagues on better paid internal positions? Wouldn't you like to take control of your financial future for the better and start living the life of your dream with the salary you want and deserve?

But Don't Just Take My Word For It! Listen To What These Guys Had to Say:

“Thank you for the copies. I would definitely consider paying $97 for the home study course, as it is a small investment compared to the expected returns (job in IB).

Thank you again, and good luck with the programme.”

Mr O. Humlen

“I must say, as someone who has spent a lot of time and effort job hunting and attending interviews, the information in this system is beyond belief! I have NEVER seen this type of information anywhere, and the tactics work – I landed myself 12 interviews out of 20 and got 9 repeat interviews and 4 job offers. What can I say, this is awesome stuff!”

Arfa Iqbal

"The Ultimate Job Hunter's Handbook" is surely one of the best programs on teaching you the essential techniques to prepare successful applications and tap into the investment banking industry. Having invested considerable time and effort in applying for internship and graduate schemes I wish I knew all those insightful tips a lot earlier.

The self-study package is designed not only to prepare you to pitch your skills and knowledge, but to be able to manage your time, take advantage of every opportunity and succeed at competency and technical based interviews. The best thing – it's concise and up to the point – No waffle! I have already started applying the techniques and would like to tell you THEY WORK!

I really adored the latest additions on the resume and cover letter writing – an exercise that would serve you for life!"

Elena Koycheva

“I signed up for the newsletters and tips a while ago while looking for a new position - one with more responsibility, challenges and of course compensation. Although I was not looking into the investment banking sector, I was able to apply the tips and suggestions regarding researching the companies and anticipating questions and the resume/cover letter suggestions. I am happy to say that I was successful in applying, interviewing and accepting an offer with negotiated terms to my satisfaction.

Thanks Agustin!”

Shelley Alexander

“I think the course is very impressive. Taking into account the volume and quality of content, I would have to say $97 a fair price. This rivals and in some areas surpasses what is currently available on the market. “

Ms Bennett

“I have been reading the ecourse & must say I am soooo impressed, and I correct my original suggestion to the price, I believe $97 is definitely worth-it. “
